

Christian Education Report

Oct. 25th, 2020

Current Activities:

- Adult Bible Study continues to be excellent
 - Currently held online; exploring potential in-person offering in January, depending on how the regulations and best health judgments continue to evolve
 - Pastor-led study ends (ended) this week - 10/25
 - Next study is on Philippians (11/1 - 11/22)
 - After that, an Advent study about Joseph
- High School and Young Adult ministry is in full swing!
 - Lois and Sunny led an in-person service and fellowship event that went great!
 - Continuing to meet online for Bible study
- Confirmation class kicked off today
 - One student in the second year
 - Two students starting their Confirmation journey
- Vacation Bible School-at-Home was awesome! Thanks to everyone who helped: Lois Scheyder, Pastor Manor, Cindy Jordan, Erin Jordan, Sage Veino
- Children's Sunday School is still a challenge
 - Conversation with parents in September indicated a desire for a mixed in-person and online offering
 - Unclear how to do this well, especially with varying levels of comfort with in-person events.
- Ladies' Bible Study came back from summer break, and has been going great
 - Cindy Jordan led the first study
 - Sunny Thompson leading the current study
 - Meeting on Zoom with an average of about 10 people in attendance per week

Upcoming:

- Figure out how to do Children's Sunday School well
- Expand Christian Education offerings available through the website
